Event Summary

Now in its 32nd year, Taste of Coeur d'Alene has become one of the Inland Northwest's favorite festivals. Coeur d'Alene City Park on beautiful Lake Coeur d'Alene in the summer is the ideal location for this event, attracting more than 50,000 seasonal and year-round residents and tourists, over three days. The festival's fine art and crafts are showcased al fresco. The festival also features live professional music and a variety of quality foods and beverages including a beer garden featuring local micro brews. Admission to the festival is free to the public. Taste of the Coeur d'Alene takes place Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 30th, 31st and August 1st 2021.
